Attempt to expel Israel - Syria, Tuesday, urged the General Assembly of the United Nations "to reconsider Israel's membership in this international organization because it has constantly and systematically and obstinately been flouting the decisions of this assembly and organization."

The expulsion of Israel from the General Assembly was given little chance because of strong opposition from both American and Arab diplomats. President Carter indicated that such action, if taken by the United Nations, "would raise the gravest questions about the future of the General Assembly and further participation of the United States and other nations in the deliberations of that body."

Similar efforts were successful in the blocking of South African participation in the General Assembly six years ago.

SONNET 146

Poor soul, the center of my sinful earth,
Thralld to these rebel powers that the array,
Why dost thou pine within & suffer dearth,
Painting thy outward walls so costly gay?
Why so large cost, having so short lease,
Dost thou upon thy fading mansion spend?
Shall worms, inheritors of this excess,
Eat up thy charge? Is this thy body's end?
Then, soul, live thou upon thy servant's loss,
And let that pine to aggravate thy store;
Buy terms divine in selling hours of dross;
Within be fed, without be rich no more.

So shalt thou feed on Death, that feeds on men,

And Death once dead, there's no more dying then.

NEWS

Iraq/Iran - Although it is certain that Iraq has made considerable land gains in Iran, reports of the Iraqi/Iranian undeclared war are so conflicting, it is difficult to discern truth from propaganda.

The fighting is centered on the two countries' oil ports and refineries on the Shatt-al-Arab waterway. Heavy damage has been reported and oil exports of both countries have been cut off, reducing by about 4 billion barrels a day the oil available to Western importers.

The Strait of Hormuz, the waterway into the Persian Gulf by which 60% of the Western world's oil passes, is still open despite Iranian threats to close it. Since the fighting erupted, however, there has been a 30% drop in oil tanker traffic.

Iraq has proposed a conditional four day cease-fire, which Iran has refused saying Iraq must first "put an end to the aggression against Iran and it must go back to original positions [it occupied] before the start of hostilities."

The U.S. and the Soviet Union have both declared a policy of neutrality in the conflict. The Iraqi government has struggled over the past few years to free itself from Soviet influence, refusing to allow a Soviet naval base in the Persian Gulf, for example. Twice since 1978, the Iraqi government has executed communists working within the government, viewing them as dangerous to the country. But the Soviet Union is still diplomatically bonded to both Iraq and Iran, while the U.S. has little influence on Iraq and no formal relations with Iran.

With the prospect of the conflict continuing for some time, Iraq may have to depend on the Soviets for military technological aid and reinforcement. This, along with the possibility of a peacemaking role, would assist the Soviets in regaining some of the influence it has lost in the Middle East over the past 10 years.

Train - Wednesday, October 1st, marked the opening of an Indianapolis to Chicago Amtrak run. The project, including $12 million in track renovation, is the initial step in an eventual Cincinnati-Indianapolis-Chicago railroad line.

Complaints concerning the safety of the railroad tracks are being investigated. Rail workers claim that the tracks may be susceptible to "popping" in the winter months because of the lack of joints to allow the metal to contract in cold weather. A stretch of the route is also deficient of a "blocking signal" which forewarns the engineer of broken tracks.

The train is scheduled to make one round-trip each day with stops at Crawfordsville, Lafayette and Dyer.

Nobody may boast of such bonds except those who feel free of bonds. And to him who plays gaily with the absurd, the absurd is likely to be suited.

FIGHT NIGHT AT ALLISON

We still need people to work at "Fright Night at Allison" on October 31st from 9pm to 4am. If you are interested, please put your name on a piece of paper and slide it under the Student Board Room door, or give it to Tim Trushaw or Sr. Ruth Forthofer. We need to know how many people will work by October 10.

Thank You
Tim Trushaw
Social Planning Chairman

 JUST A NOTE TO . . .

Thank all who donated to and participated in the blood draw last Tuesday. This year's response was better than years past and hopefully enthusiasm will continue to grow. Because of your charity and good will others will live. Your support and generosity are appreciated.

 BIBLE TEACHING

Every Tuesday for ten weeks there will be a Scripture Study/Discussion in the Marian College Library Auditorium, at 9 a.m. to 11a.m. and repeated at 7:30 in the evening. The series consists of ten video tapes Father George Montague, a Scripture scholar nationally recognized for his deeply spiritual and practical lectures on the Bible. He makes the experiences of the first Christians as related in the First Letter to the Corinthians, meaningful for Christians today, and he helps one learn to read the Word of God prayerfully. Beginners or experienced readers of the Bible will benefit from these lectures. The morning discussion following the video will be led by Msgr. Ray Bosler, and the evening discussion by Sister Rita Horstman. Cost of the series is $15.00, but free to those with Marian College student, faculty or staff I.D.'s.

 NEW BEGINNINGS WEEKEND RETREAT

Dr. Appleby

SENIORS

There are two photographers who are interested in taking Senior pictures here at Marian. For those interested in outdoor shots, our own Dr. Appleby does excellent work at reasonable prices. For those interested in the traditional studio shot, Gary Yohler (last year's yearbook photographer) has said that if enough people are interested in having him take their picture, he would be willing to set up here at school and save you a trip to his studio. Mr. Yohler would like to know by October 15th, so if anyone is interested they should contact one of the Senior Class Officers (Bryan, 293-3958; Eileen, 424; Thom, 353; Ann, 415; Joe, 294) by this date. I also have the price lists for both Mr. Yohler and Dr. Appleby in case anyone wishes to look at the costs.

Bryan Cunningham
Senior Class Officer

 FOOD SERVICE COMMITTEE

Student Board needs students who would be interested in serving on the Food Service Committee. The responsibilities include discussing menu changes and complaints and suggestions about how meal service could be improved. If you are interested, please see one of the Student Board Officers.

 NOT ONLY IS TIME A MAGAZINE

The meaning of time isn't fully realized until there's not enough, and enough of it there isn't on Thursdays. If any person or organization has material for the CARBON, we ask to have them in our hands, under the door, or imprinted in our minds by Wednesday evening. We realize it's bad Karma to kill (a story), so please assist us in our feeble attempts at organization.

Rev. Dr. Leopold Keffler, one of the new professors who joined the Biology Department this August, is a native of Canton Ohio. He professed as a member of the Conventual Franciscan Order in 1955 and entered Our Lady of Carey Seminary in Carey, Ohio. After four years of philosophy and theology here, Fr. Keffler moved on to Assumption Seminary and College in Minnesota where he completed his masters in religious sciences. He was ordained a priest in 1963.

After his ordination, Fr. Leopold entered the University of Mississippi and worked on his second Masters in Combined Sciences with an emphasis in Biology which was successfully completed in 1967. Fr. Leopold continued his education working on his Doctorate in Aquatic Biology with an emphasis on Limnology. He finished his dissertation on "The Study of the Influence of Calcium on the Effects of DDT on Fish" in 1972.

After finishing his Doctorate, he taught in the Biology Departments of Bellarmine College in Kentucky and St. Hyacinth College and Seminary in Massachusetts. He moved to Indiana in 1978 and worked at the Provincial Office at Mt. St. Francis until he joined us here at Marain.

During my conversation with this gracious, scholarly priest, I mixed in a few general questions:

What do you think of Marian College?

I enjoy it. I like the nice, warm family atmosphere here.

How do you feel about the students?

I have not been here long enough to answer that fully. But with my short experience, I find them comfortable and pleasant to work with. And from the class tests I recently evaluated, academically speaking, the level is high. I particularly enjoy the delightful nursing group.

Does your wearing of the habit have any effect on the student's relationship with you?

No adverse effect.

How do you feel about the changing of attire to suit the modern fashions?

Many of the stereotypes were confining, unreal and unnecessary. On the other hand, stereotypes help to identify structures, relationships, etc., and it is valuable. I have mixed feelings about it. Some are eased by the change while others are confused.

What is your opinion on the Church allowing married Anglican priests in?

I haven't read enough about it, but it's probably good. It could help achieve the ecumenical goal.

Would this change the Celibacy Rule?

Not for the time being, but this could increase the pressure for considering that possibility.

What do you think of women priests for the Catholic Church?

Anglicans who are opposed to the ordination of women in their church are joining us. It's difficult to predict the future on that topic. What do you think is the cause for the soaring divorce rates?

Less value for permanency.

Fr. Leopold agreed to discuss select topics in the future. We thank you, Fr. Leopold, for squeezing this interview into your busy schedule.

INFO WE'D LIKE TO IMPART ON YOU

The first meeting of the art club was held last week. The members regrouped and a strong spirit of willingness and enthusiasm was evident. We see the purpose of our organization is for us to give our ever-abundant abilities to the college--that's how we learn to meet the demands involved with the "commercial art" world. SO WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR YOU??

It means that you have a way of getting your posters, programs, banners or whatever done by a group of art students. It means that you can be assured of "good" to "excellent" results based on these facts: each art club will be involved in at least a couple of projects, each student has reached the level of ability to finish a job and just in case it's not professional in every aspect the first attempt, our designs must be submitted and approved BEFORE they are printed so additional instruction can be given if needed.

HOW DO YOU APPLY FOR THESE SERVICES?? Grab an art club contract, fill out the blanks, return it to Sr. Mary de Paul's mailshelf or give it to Bobbie Jackson, the Art Club's president. The students taking care of you will be in contact if further information is needed. Please give us a minimum of two weeks to complete your project. If you could give us the contract earlier, we would appreciate it. Keep us in mind-- use us when you can.

Dare he, for whom circumstances make it possible to realize his true destiny, refuse it simply because he is not prepared to give up everything else?

OCTOBER 4TH. . .

Is the Feast of St. Francis. Happy Feast Day to the Sisters of St. Francis at Marian College.

Dear Becher, you tell me to mix with mankind;
I cannot deny such a precept is wise;
But retirement accords with the tone of my mind,
I will not descend to a world I despise.

Oh! thus, the desire in my bosom for fame
Bids me live but to hope for posterity's praise;
Could I soar with the phoenix on pinions of flame
With him I would wish to expire in the blaze.

LINES (cont'd)

Yet why should I mingle in fashion's full herd?
Why crouch to her leaders, or cringe to her rulers?
Why bend to the proud, or applaud the absurd?
Why search for delight in the friendship of fools?

I have tasted the sweets and bitters of love;
In friendship I early was taught to believe;
My passions for the matrons of prudence reprove;
I have found that a friend may profess, yet deceive.

To me what is wealth?-- it may pass in an hour,
If tyrants prevail or if Fortune should frown;
To me what is title?-- the phantom of power;
To me what is fashion?-- I seek but renown.

Deceit is a stranger yet to my soul,
I still am unpracticed to varnish the truth;
Then why should I live in a hateful control?
Why waste upon folly the days of my youth?

NEW MEDICARE SUPPLEMENT NOW AVAILABLE

Metro-Health Plan is now available to Medicare recipients in the Indianapolis and surrounding areas. The MHP Medicare Supplement will coordinate benefits with Medicare and cover the gaps in coverage.

The concept of MHP is one of prepaid health care where the member pays the premium in advance. The member then uses the services whenever needed without hesitation because of expense or question of coverage. It is one complete system that delivers care as well as pays for health services. The personal MHP physician manages the member's medical needs including checkups and specialist referrals. Hospitalization is covered if authorized by the MHP physician. In addition, there are no claim forms to fill out. MHP files all claim forms.

Members select the medical office of their choice -- one on the northeast side of town at 3000 Meadows Parkway and the other in Speedway at 5610 Crawfordsville Road. Each medical center is complete with doctor's offices; x-ray department; laboratory; opometry department; emergency treatment rooms; pharmacy; and, at the eastside location, dental suites.

Each eligible Medicare recipient may freely select Metro-Health's Supplement. Information and enrollment forms are available by calling 542-8136.
